SENIORS DEDICATE CORONET '80 TO:

In dedicating the 1980 CORONET, the Senior Class recognizes an individual who has dedicated fourteen years of her life to Queens. Her innumerable hours of service in the classroom, on the faculty committees, and in support of student activities; her genuine concern that the needs of her colleagues and students alike be met, and the determination and vitality with which she approaches all that she does are invaluable contributions to the college community. In appreciation for all the time and energy spent in devotion to Queens, we proudly dedicate the 1980 CORONET to Dr. Virginia Martin.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

Susie Barber, Irene Hurst, Alice Glasscock, back row
— Carolyn Crews, Margaret Whittier, Diane Gilmore

After four years of studying, cramming, and agonizing over classes, all the hard work will soon be over and the graduating class of 1980 will be facing a whole new challenge. The hard work will be remembered but the memories of fun times and friends will last even longer. Queens will have succeeded in turning the uncertain, unexperienced freshmen of four years ago into more mature, well prepared graduates.

JUNIORS

Well girls, we've stuck it out now for three years, don't you think we can make it for one more? We watched our class start off with 120 and now we have dwindled to a group about the size of fifty. Our motto should be "only the strong survive." We might be a small group, but boy, do we have Charisma!!!!!!!!!!!!

Welcome Queens College Trustees

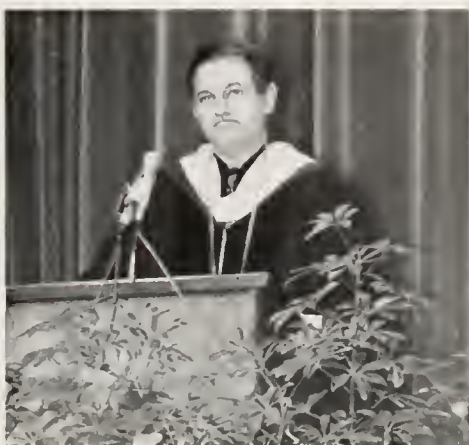

FOUNDER'S DAY

This year Queens was honored to have Governor James Hunt of North Carolina as guest speaker at the annual Founder's Day festivities. Also included in this year's program was a message from President Wireman, special recognition of Alumnae by Dean Tyson and a performance by the Queens College Concert Choir. This tradition was revived last year by Queens Alumnae.

WOMEN'S CAREER CENTER

The Queens Career Center is a vital part of a student's life on campus. Here, with the help of professional counselors, students are able to assess their abilities toward a career, find job opportunities, or obtain personal counseling.

Mattie Kissiah, Nancy Horne, Susan Brown, Georgene Slater, Carol Smith.

Orientation leaders have the tremendous task of helping the freshmen feel at home at Queens and adjust to college life. This job does not end after orientation week. Throughout the year our orientation leaders are busy doing special things for the new students at Queens.

Where would we be without our R.A.'s? They do so much for all the students in so many ways. The responsibilities that go with the job are many. The R.A.'s here at Queens go through special training and preparation before being eligible for the job. Without them, student life would be much more difficult.

THE MAMAS AND THE PAPAS

On the weekend of October 26-28, Queens held its annual Parents' Weekend and parents from around the United States (and other countries) flocked to Queens to meet professors and friends of their daughters. The weekend included a dance, a coffee at the Wireman's, a chapel service, and, of course, the highlight of the visit, Stunt Night.

"What kind of plant is this?"

"How much money???"

"No, actually — I don't know the Queen . . . personally"

"She didn't"

"Hey Pop — Do you pretzle?"

"Love at first sight!"

"She says she won't go to a place called Phartz!"

"Hello! My name is . . ."

"Do ya'll know . . . Misty?"

"Name that tune . . ."

"Hate to break the news . . ."

DANA SCHOLARS: These are awarded annually to students in each of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The students must maintain outstanding records for scholarship and leadership. The scholars receive a $200 honorarium. The financial need of a Dana Scholar is always met. Recipients are chosen by the faculty Honors Committee.

Kneeling: Cheri MacLaughlin, Mim Hand, Kathy Wayland, Debbie Seuntjens, Cindy Hare
Sitting: Cathi Crumpler, Tany Broome, Katy Mercer, Peg Murray
Standing: Chery Allee, Carol Mercer, Gina Pifer, Sarah Norment, Li Hames, Jan Graham, Emily Elyea, Margaret Whittier.

BELK SCHOLARS: Carol G. Belk Scholarship Awards are available annually to outstanding new students. Recipients are chosen on the basis of their leadership records in school and community, academic ability, and potential for continuing leadership at Queens. The amounts of these awards may vary, but each is renewable based on the student's academic performance.

1st row: P. Gamage, C. Mercer, K. Mercer, J. Taylor
2nd row: C. Allen, M. Wood, K. Fesperman, E. Elyea, A. Goldman, 3rd row: B. McCrary, C. Allee, L. Trueman, P. Curtis, D. Springfield, Marth Evans, C. Hare, M. Whittier, A. Glasscock, A. Jenkins, K. Schrun, S. Sieg.

HONOR MARSHALS

The Marshals are selected from the rising sophomore, junior and senior classes at the end of each year. Two girls with the highest Q.P.A.'s from each class are chosen as the Honor Marshals. The senior with the highest average from the past three years serves as Chief Marshal. The Honor Marshals serve at all academic processions.

Seated: Emily Elyea Standing: Mimi Hand, Cherie MacLaughlin, Jane Graham.

Senior Marshals: Peggy Johnson, Margaret Whittier, Rita Stone.

PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARS

Dr. Billy O. Wireman announced the recipients of the first Presidential Scholarships to be offered at Queens. The program is designed to attract students of outstanding academic and leadership ability. Each scholarship is over $16,000 for the four years. The scholarships are funded through the generous donations made by Lucille Finch Jones, Queens alumnae, and NCNB Corporation.

QUEENS SCHOLARS

Queens Scholar Awards are available annually to new students who have exhibited outstanding records in scholarship and leadership. The amounts of the awards vary and they are renewable based on academic performance.

FEAST OF LOVE

This year's Moravian Love Feast was held on December 9, 1979, at the end of Christmas Formal Weekend. Queens students joined with the people of Charlotte to celebrate the real meaning of Christmas. Everyone enjoyed the buns, coffee, carols, and especially the lighting of the candles. Afterwards, everyone followed Dean Tyson to the lighting of the Christmas tree in Burwell circle.

WHAT A YEAR FOR PHI MU

PHIS:

PHI MU had one great year full of feeds, mixers and parties. Of course, the new decor and air conditioning made for plenty to celebrate about. Their fiftieth anniversary marked a spirit and tradition that will live strong many more years on the Queens College Campus.

QC GIRLS ARE HOPPIN' & BOPPIN'

It's a good thing that Erin chose Volleyball instead of Ballet.

Coach Pharr is demonstrating the intimidating glare for the opponents.

IT'S ALL GREEK TO ME

Seated: Nancy Fesperman, Merle Crim; Kneeling: Rosemary York, Debra Boddie Erin Ryan; Standing: Cathy Naetzker, Cindy Siskey, Cindy Kelly, Janna Wasson, Denise Boerckel.

TEAM GOT FIRED UP!!!

Talk about SPIRIT! The volleyball team caused a stir on campus with Mrs. Pharr's ingenious underground News series that kept the entire campus up to date on the volleyball happenings. The whole team showed everyone the true Queens' spirit and enthusiasm.

TENNIS TEAM

The tennis team is one of the two competitive teams that Queens students can participate on. The team practices every afternoon, but this kind of hard work is necessary to compete against tough teams like Salem, Converse, and Davidson. This year's determined team members are: J.C. Cleaveland, Gwen Cone, Liz Hames, Peg Murray, Karen Stenger, Allison Austin, Mary Ann Hammer, Jan Geiger, and coach Phyllis Pharr.

Great shot, Gwen!

Coach Phyllis Pharr gets in on the action.

Karen, Allison, Mary Ann, Peg, Jan, Gwen, J.C. and Liz take time out from practice to smile for the camera.

March	2	Western Carolina
March	5	St. Andrews
March	7	USC — Lancaster
March	11	Davidson
March	13	Converse
March	17	USC — Lancaster
March	20	Salem
March	21	Meredith
April	1	Salem
April	9	Converse
April	10	UNCC
April	14	Davidson
April	17-19	NCAIWA Tournament

Where's the ball?!

Looking good, Peg!

Practice makes perfect.

Keep your eye on that ball, Mary Ann.

THE DOLPHIN CLUB

The Dolphin Club, coached by Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, performs water ballet here at Queens. The club's main project is an aquatic ballet show put on each year for Mom's weekend.

ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, WALES AND PARIS

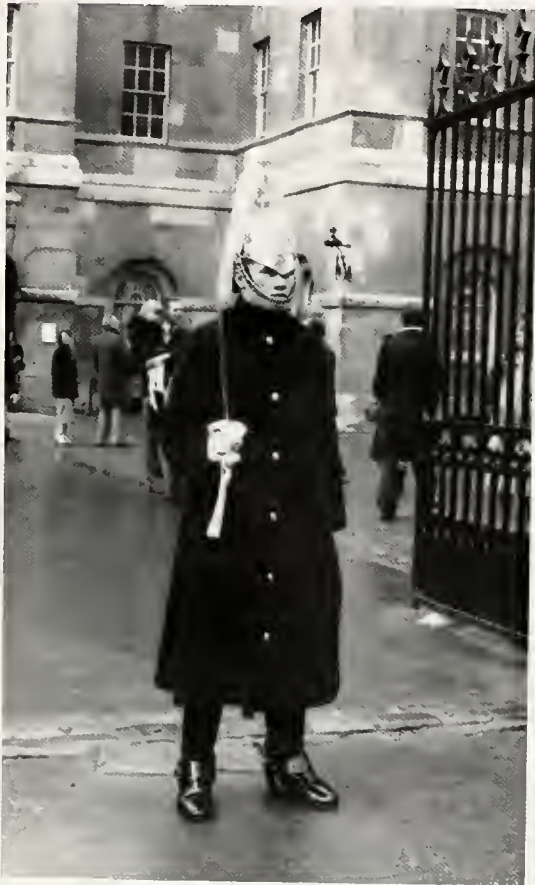

Dr. Charles Hadley, Dr. Bill Thompson, and Dr. Dick Goode sponsored a twenty-one day tour of England, Scotland, Wales, and Paris during the month of January. Thirty-one girls participated in this chance-of-a-lifetime trip.

The group began their journey at the Atlanta airport. The group spent four days in London then journeyed to York, Edinburgh, Keswick, Ilanwrst, Stratford-upon-Avon then returned to London.

The last four days in London were sad for the group because half the group were going on to Paris, a few flew back to the States, Senior Margaret Whittier stayed in London and Junior Lisa Smith went on her own to Holland.

The English/History based study tour included trips to castles, museums, art galleries, theatres, memorials, and monuments.

Overall, the group had the chance to sample and observe European culture.

Well, for the second year in a row I've edited the yearbook at Queens. My staff and I have tried our best to bring you, the students, the best book possible. We feel that we have improved especially in coverage of events. We're sorry for any mistakes.

I hope that you like the finished product and that you get a clear picture of the year 1979-80 at Queens College.

I now give you, the 1980 Coronet!!!

Debbie Springfield
Editor

Personal thanks to my assistant editor — Lisa Smith, my chief photographer — Margaret Whittier, our non-staff member typist — Meg Horne, my staff and photographers plus all the people who gave of their time and of their personal pictures!!! (You'll never know how much ya'll have meant to me).
